KNOW YOUR PRODUCT

BY NERYL WALKER

New works on canvas and A3 prints by Jacky Winter artist Neryl Walker.

Neryl Walker is an illustrator/artist who is no stranger to the buxom babe. Her cheeky gals have found their way onto packaging and publishing from Melbourne to New York and beyond. From Bloom Cosmetics to Coca Cola, Neryl Walker knows her product - women.

'Know your Product' is an exhibition of original paintings and limited edition prints, displaying the trademark ladies that have won Neryl a loyal following: sun-bleached, candy coloured, perky gals accompanied by strong line work, hand drawn typography and, of course, a matchless embracement of the burlesque. A tongue-in-cheek nod to the use of the female image in the media, 'Know your Product' also imparts to all whom view a fun/funny sense of vintage nostalgia.

Neryl Walker has extensive experience in commercial illustration and her client list has included: Bare Escentuals and Bloom Cosmetics, Coca Cola, McDonalds, Angostura, Target, Penguin Publishing, Chronicle Books, Harper Collins, New York Magazine, Readers Digest, German Glamour, Travel & Leisure, INStyle UK, and Vogue Nippon. Her work has been included in Luerzer's Archive top 200 Illustrators. She currently lives in Melbourne with her husband, daughter and impossibly large cat. She is represented in New York and in Australia
